

(see Order Granting Leave to Proceed In Forma Pauperis, dated May 11, 2011), without the benefit of an attorney, the Court set an oral hearing and heard from both parties. At the hearing, Petitioner-Appellee Salish and Kootenai Housing Authority agreed in good faith to set aside their Motion to Dismiss dated May 8, 2012. Both parties agreed to move forward with the appeal with the Court setting a briefing schedule.

ORDER

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED that this Court having heard from both the Respondent-Appellant, Patricia Miller and the Petitioner-Appellee, Salish and Kootenai Housing Authority at the June 6, 2012 and reviewing the documents submitted by each party after the hearing, this Court dismisses Ms. Miller's appeal and affirms the March 23, 2011 Judgment and Order by Chief Judge Tanner, to evict Ms. Miller from the SKHA Low Rent Dwelling Unit 9-14, located at 35824 Michael Pablo Loop and hold Ms. Miller responsible for any unpaid utilities, move out damages and any pending delinquent accounts associated with Unit 9-14. Since 2009, the SKHA have made several attempts to work with Ms. Miller in relocating her to a smaller two bedroom unit since Ms. Miller was issued a Notice of Termination of the SKHA Low Rent Dwelling Lease for Unit 9-14 and a Notice to Vacate, in 2009, due to violating SKHA's Criminal & Drug-Related Activity Policy. Because Ms. Miller doesn't dispute the violation of the SKHA Criminal & Drug-Related Activity Policy, the SKHA properly issued the Notice of Termination and Notice to Vacate the SKHA Unit 9-14 back in 2009 and this Court must uphold and affirm the Tribal Court's March 23, 2011 decision.

IT IS SO ORDERED THIS 26th DAY OF NOVEMBER, 2012.

DANIEL D. BELCOURT
Associate Justice

cc: Patricia Miller, Respondent-Appellant
Salish and Kootenai Housing Authority, Petitioner-Appellee
