20 On May 17, 2017, The Appellate Court, upon notice to the parties, 21
22 held oral argument in this matter. Notably, the Appellant was not 23
24 present at the argument. Additionally, Appellant had previously filed 25
26 several pro se communications to the Court and Court administrator
27
28 expressing her wish to dismiss the Appeal at issue.

The Court scheduled oral argument to give the pro se Appellant an opportunity to express any change in her status or to otherwise communicate to the Court. The Court made the determination at the time to dismiss the case for failure to appear and because Appellant previously expressed her desire to dismiss the matter.
